Platform Trailer

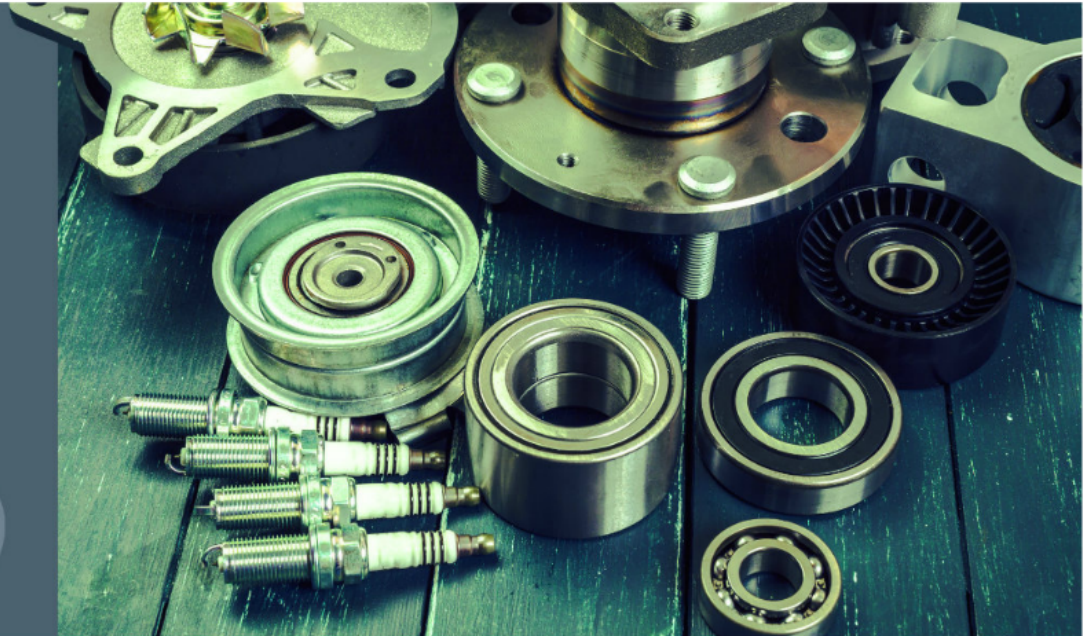

A photograph of a workshop interior. The scene is filled with various tools, equipment, and machinery. In the foreground, there's a large, metallic, cylindrical object, possibly a part of a machine or a large container. To the left, there are shelves and racks holding various items. The background shows more equipment and a corrugated metal wall. A prominent red banner is overlaid across the middle of the image, containing the word "WORKSHOPS" in white, bold, uppercase letters.

WORKSHOPS

*While in earlier times and in many other companies, service comes after sales, the ICTS Group focuses on sales after service

“The workshops of ICTS Group serve as an added value for the customer in terms of service.”
